

June, 2022

JEPIC

JICA Knowledge Co-Creation Program (JFY2022)
“Stabilizing Power Systems to Introduce Various Kinds of Renewable Energy (B)”

Japan Electric Power Information Center (JEPIC) conducted a Knowledge Co-Creation Program under the contract with JICA.

The program was implemented under the cooperation of Hokuriku Electric Power Transmission & Distribution Co., Inc. as follows,

Date	May 31 (Tue) to June 17 (Fri), 2022
Organization	Japan Electric Power Information Center, Inc. Hokuriku Electric Power Transmission & Distribution Company.
Participant	Total 8 countries, 13 participants Armenia (1), Azerbaijan (1), Bangladesh (2), Georgia (2), Mongolia (1), Pakistan (1), Philippines (2), Sri Lanka (3)
Subject	[Distribution of Lecture Material & Online Discussion] - Outline of Electric Power Industry in Japan - Overview of Hokuriku EP T&D and Outline of Renewable Energy - Basics of Renewable Energy - Grid-code & Access Examination, Planning & Operation, Issues & Countermeasures for Power System (Transmission System, Distribution System) - Surplus Power Measures - Power System Analysis / Access Examination Practice etc. [Others] - Initiatives for Decarbonization of Toyama-city - Inception Report / Action Plan Presentation etc.

